Features:

☐ Official Documentation — You've got a right to be here, and the paperwork to prove it.

Once per scene, when you go to strike a deal, you may leverage your position as a law-keeper by revealing a document to support your claim.

☐ Piece by Piece — A case is built by the trail of clues it leaves behind, and you are the one to pick them up.

When you poke around, you gain additional benefits. On a 7-9 you may ask the MC 1 yes or no question, on a 10+ you may ask 2 questions.

☐ Staredown — The resolve that burns behind your eyes is enough to paralyze would-be assailants.

When you intimidate an npc you may add your GRIT modifier instead of your SILVER. Additionally, on a 10+ you may gain one level of exhaustion to freeze the NPC in place until the end of the scene.

☐ Quickdraw — Always ready, you learned a long time ago not to get caught by surprise.

At the beginning of a fight, you act first unless there is another character with this feature, in which case the character with the higher IRON score goes first. Additionally, when you are getting ambushed, you may gain an exhaustion to make one move before the ambush begins.
